

- School of Technology, 1903; initiated by Georgia Phi, Sept. 27, 1901; eminent correspondent; attended S. A. E. Nat'l convention, Washington 1902, Atlanta, 1906; delegate Atlantic City, 1909; elected eminent supreme treasurer, 1906 and re-elected 1909; sales agent for Atlanta Steel Co.; m. Virginia Butler, Jan. 17, 1906. Address, 181 Ponce de Leon Ave., Atlanta, Ga.
- STONE, Edward Carleton, lawyer; b. Lexington, Mass., June 29, 1878; s. Alvah C. and Alice A. (Tufts) S.; ed. Boston University, 1900; initiated by Massachusetts Beta-Upsilon, March 19, 1898; delegate to S. A. E. Nat'l convention, Boston, 1900; moderator town meetings, selectman, Lexington; mem. house of representatives, Massachusetts, 1903 and 1904; instructor and lecturer Boston University School of Law, professor and member of faculty Boston Y. M. C. A. Evening School of Law; Worshipful Master Masonic lodge; m. Katharine Leggett Brooke, June 27, 1908. Residence, 9 Auburn Road, Lexington, Mass., office, care Sawyer, Hardy and Stone, 53 State St., Boston, Mass.
- STONE, George H., lawyer; b. Parker, Turner county, S. D., Aug., 23, 1883; s. George W. and Augusta G. S.; ed. University of Minnesota, 1904, editor-in-chief of Minnesota magazine, 1903; initiated by Minnesota Alpha, Sept. 21, 1902; states attorney, 1907 to 1911; secretary Mott Commercial club; firm of Crane and Stone; president of National Investment Co., vice-president Security Investment Co., of Jamestown, N. D.; m. Gladys Bassford, March 12, 1909. Address, Mott, N. D.
- STONE, Orra Laville, lawyer; b. Worcester, Mass., May 27, 1873; s. Louis L. and Josephine A. (Cheney) S.; ed. Boston University, 1901; graduated with cum laude degree LL. B.; initiated by Massachusetts Beta-Upsilon, Dec. 3, 1898; eminent archon; delegate S. A. E. Nat'l convention, Boston, 1900; secretary republican town committee, secretary fourth Massachusetts congressional district committee, chairman fourth Massachusetts congressional district, appointed in 1904 as clerk of the second District Court of Eastern Worcester, appointed in 1904 as probation officer, president Lambsdee club of Clinton; mem. Trinity lodge A. F. and A. M.; Clinton Royal Arch chapter; commander Lieutenant A. L. Fuller Camp, 19, Sons of Veterans and in 1902-1903 was division commander of Massachusetts Division Sons of Veterans, and under his administration 1,200 members were added, the largest gain ever made in a single year; mem. Clinton lodge K. of P.; trustee Worcester East Agricultural society. Address, 77 High St., Clinton, Mass.
- STONE, Thomas H., lawyer; b. Jasper, Tex., Dec. 5, 1871; s. Thomas Marshall and Emily Florida (Kyle) S.; ed. at University of Texas, 1893; initiated by Texas Rho, 1890; brother of Arthur Kyle Stone, Texas Rho (deceased); city attorney for Houston, 1902-1906, president Houston club, director of Chamber of Commerce, mem. of Thalian club, mem. of Houston Turnverein, Elks club, Mason; m. Florence Ford, Feb. 23, 1898. Residence, Beaconsfield apartments, office, 507-508 First Nat'l Bank Bldg., Houston, Tex.
- STOVALL, Pleasant, editor and publisher; b. 1857; ed. at University of Georgia, 1875; initiated by Georgia Beta; delegate to S. A. E. Nat'l conventions, Augusta, 1878; Nashville, 1879; Augusta, 1882; Louisville, 1883; brother of B. A. Stovall, Georgia Beta; editor and publisher of the Savannah Press. Address, Savannah, Ga.
- STOWELL, Clarence Warner, educator; b. Springfield, Mass., May 1, 1877; s. George Merrill and Kate Elizabeth S.; ed. at University of Maine, 1900; class vice-president and treasurer, class track and football teams, varsity track, on Frisam annual board, assistant editor The Cadet Monthly, editor and founder The Campus Weekly, mem. and leader of the Glee club, college quartette; initiated by Maine Alpha, Feb. 22, 1901 (charter mem.); founder and president of local Iota-Phi; attended Boston Nat'l convention as petitioner 1900, delegate to province convention at Cambridge, 1901 and 1903, Orono,